Also, I wanted to bring to everyone's attention that we have about 15 people on the call from EPA and I believe Earthjustice only will have Paul and his colleague Kylie Wager. His clients were not available for this call. So, we will have to go through introductions rather quickly.

I see now that on Friday Amy sent in what she suggested be discussed on tomorrow's HI call with Earthjustice.

I haven't seen any response from you or Brittany.
Is that the planned list of questions?

Thanks, Mary

Yikes! Good luck catching up on all that. Good news is that I think we have corresponded enough today that you are pretty much all caught up on the cases. The only one we haven't discussed today is HI and I can fill you in on anything that seems incomplete – just give me a call.

Lilian-

A ton of emails from last week just now appeared in my email box including lots of the back & forth on Hawaii, Beaumont, & West Crossett. So excuse any of my emails from earlier that sounded weird like I hadn't read stuff – b/c I hadn't read stuff b/c it wasn't here.

I am now reading through it all.

It wasn't quite like yours with a total absence of emails – it was just that about 3 days worth (Wednesday through some point on Friday) all of a sudden showed up.

Thanks, Mary
